ICATH: Informed Consent for Access to Trans Health , Seattle, WA.

Founder, Provider, Trainer and Advocate.

2011-present

- Founded ICATH: ICATH is a project that is a collaboration of gender confirming providers, including therapists and medical professionals.
- Advocate for the acceptance of Informed Consent as a Standard of Care, both on a macro and micro level.
- Work directly with consumers to advocate for reduced-barrier access to gender-confirming health care.
- Promote the ICATH model, which reflects the basic human right to self-actualization by advocating for transgender individuals to get their basic health care needs met without having to go through the gate keeping process of therapy to prove mental competence.
- Work to make ICATH accessible to providers and consumers alike.
- Train in ICATH to improve providers' understanding that ICATH promotes a departure from the system that uses the diagnosis Gender Identity Disorder Diagnosis and Gender Dysphoria as a means for accessing gender confirming health care.
